

TRACKED FROM PILLAR TO POST

Helie de Sagan Hunted by Reporters in the Old World.

NO ESCAPE FOR THE PRINCE

MME. ANNA GOULD DUE AT NAPLES TODAY.

Naples, April 23.—Declaring that he had been driven almost to desperation, Prince Helie de Sagan tonight left the hotel at which he had been staying and took an apartment on the Corso Vittorio Emanuele, under the name of Louis Perle. He expressed regret at the delay of the steamer Friedrich der Grosse, on which Mme. Anna Gould is a passenger, which will arrive here today, and which, although due to arrive today, will not arrive here until 7 o'clock tomorrow morning. His arrival, he said, would mean "protection from being victimized by a—d reporters of two hemispheres."

Driver Tipped Him Off.

In trying to escape the close watch the newspaper men have placed on him, the prince drove along the Toledo seacoast, but soon discovered that his driver was in league with the cab drivers of his pursuers, signs of passing between them by means of their whips. This was early in the day and he returned at once to his hotel, where he found several telegrams awaiting him. Later he discussed with the hotel director the possibility of securing for Friday after the arrival of the Friedrich der Grosse an automobile, with a chauffeur whom he could trust not to be signalling his movement to "gules."

Followed Him to Theatre.

"The prince went to the theatre in the evening, but soon realized that all the convenient places near him were occupied by reporters. He left in disgust, exclaiming: "I thought it impossible to be worse treated than in America."

The prince has engaged a magnificent apartment dating from Friday at Bertolini's palace hotel, which dominates Naples, and from which a splendid view of the gulf and Mount Vesuvius may be had. It is presumed that the apartment has been engaged for Mme. Gould.

VOTE ALMOST UNANIMOUS

House Adopts the Tillman Resolution Regarding Suits Against Land Grant Railroad.

Washington, April 23.—By the overwhelming vote of 245 to 4 the house today, after several hours' discussion, adopted without amendment the senate joint resolution authorizing the attorney general to file suits against the Oregon & California Railroad company for the forfeiture of all or part of 2,800,000 acres of land granted to the western part of Oregon. It is claimed by the government that by reason of breaches and violations of the laws relating to the grants the railroad company had forfeited all right to the land in question. The sentiment of the house was practically unanimous that the suits would work no hardship on bona fide purchasers of homesteads from the company. The resolution was reported by Senator Tillman, and has passed that body.

At 5:42 p. m. the house took a recess until 11:30 tomorrow.

CONDITION OF CLEVELAND

Former President Suffering From an Attack of Stomach Trouble at Lakewood, N. J.

Lakewood, N. J., April 23.—At 11 o'clock this morning it was learned that ex-President Grover Cleveland, who is suffering from an attack of stomach trouble, was not quite so well as he was yesterday. Mr. Cleveland is at the Lakewood hotel, where his apartments have been kept open after the closing of the remainder of the hotel. He has had similar attacks in the past, and it has always been his custom to leave his home at Princeton for Lakewood, where his recovery has been aided by the mildness of the climate. He is attended in his present illness by Dr. Gaudinier of Lakewood and Dr. Joseph P. Bryant of New York. Dr. Bryant has been Mr. Cleveland's physician for years. Mrs. Cleveland, who went to Princeton yesterday, has returned to Lakewood.

Mrs. Cleveland in response to an inquiry sent out the following message:

"Mr. Cleveland is getting along nicely."

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

has been used for YEARS by MILLIONS of MOTHERS for their CHILDREN WHILE TEETHING, with PERFECT SUCCESS. IT SOOTHES, IT CURES, IT SOFTENS THE GUMS, ALLAYS ALL PAIN, CURES WIND COLIC, and is the best remedy for DIARRHOEA. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" and take no other kind. Twenty-five cents a bottle. GUARANTEED UNDER THE FOOD AND DRUG ACT, JUNE 30, 1906. SERIAL NUMBER 1088.

172 MAIN ST.

There is no occasion for any alarm. I may issue a statement to the Associated Press tomorrow."

James H. Berry, manager of the hotel, said tonight that the hotel would continue to house Mr. Cleveland's party until such time as they find it convenient to leave. "Mr. Cleveland is improving and will return to Princeton probably within a short time," said Mr. Berry. "He came to Lakewood about the middle of March, and since that time has been quietly recuperating. Mrs. Cleveland is with him at present, although her duties here time between Lakewood and Princeton, making occasional trips to the Cleveland home to see her children, who are there. Mr. Cleveland decided to remain a few days longer, and we will keep the necessary force of servants here until he leaves for Princeton. There are a few guests remaining at the hotel, although it is closed to newcomers."

IN POLICE CIRCLES.

C. E. Osterloh, proprietor of the Penny Arcade, at 75 East Second South street, was in the police court yesterday afternoon for the violation of the city ordinance. He took until today to plead to the charge.

When Osterloh opened his place, he paid a blanket license, which was understood to cover all of the slot machines in his place. It has now been decided that Osterloh must pay license of $10 for each of the machines. As he has about twenty-five slot machines in the place, he is now being forced to pay a license of $250 for the machines. He is now being forced to pay a license of $250 for the machines. He is now being forced to pay a license of $250 for the machines.

When "Dad" Steadblum, an old scissor grinder, sat down to rest upon the porch of Mrs. C. H. Griffin, at 85 East Second South street yesterday afternoon, he was mistaken for an impudent tramp. The police were summoned. The old man was taken to police headquarters in the patrol wagon. There he was recognized as a harmless character, who had sharpened his scissors for years for his neighbors. He was allowed to go on his way.

C. E. Alstott, who is accused of having stolen a set of harness from W. H. Klugdon, was placed on trial in the police court yesterday morning. His lawyer asked for the dismissal of the case, on the ground that the prosecution had failed to produce evidence showing that the man had committed the offense. Judge Diehl will render a decision this morning.

Neil Williamson, a farmer, complained to the police yesterday that he had been robbed of $30 and a watch in an East First South street lodging house on Wednesday night. He said that on reaching Salt Lake he became acquainted with a young man and decided to pass Wednesday night at his place. When he got to the place yesterday morning, the man was gone; also the $30 and the watch.

Frank Poulos, charged with the theft of a bicycle belonging to James McCorrison, from 15 Commercial street, was arraigned in police court yesterday morning. He was released on his own recognizance. He was no longer willing to prosecute.

SONS OF REVOLUTION.

Annual Banquet at University Club Is Enjoyed.

The Sons of the American Revolution held their annual banquet last evening at the University club. The banquet was in commemoration of the battle of Lexington, the anniversary of which was last Sunday. The banquet was a splendid affair, and the guests enjoyed it very much. The banquet was a splendid affair, and the guests enjoyed it very much.

The banquet committee of the society consisted of Frank E. Stephens, D. S. Spencer, Russell L. Tracy, Dr. E. D. Woodruff and C. P. Overfield.

Ice Cream Cones.

John W. Walsh, manufacturer, 272 South State street.

MRS. CLEMENT DIES.

Well-Known Young Matron Succumbs to Brain Fever.

Mrs. Helen M. Clement of San Francisco, formerly Mrs. F. L. Libby of Salt Lake, died yesterday forenoon at 8 o'clock at the Holy Cross hospital from brain fever. Mrs. Clement lived the greater portion of her life in Salt Lake, and before her marriage was a leader in Salt Lake social circles. She is survived by her mother, a sister, Miss Lillian W. Palmer, and a daughter, Miss Vera Libby, who is attending Rowland hall in Salt Lake. The funeral will be held from the sixth ward chapel Sunday at 12:30 o'clock. The interment will be in the cemetery of S. D. Evans, from 9 until 11 o'clock.

OGDEN AND RETURN $1.00

Via D. & R. G. Sunday, April 26.

First canyon excursion of the season. Leave Salt Lake 10:25 a. m. 1 p. m. 3:30 p. m. Returning, leave Ogden 5:45 a. m. Street cars from Ogden union depot to mouth of canyon. Stages to the Hermitage and the Oakes. Everybody invited.

Job White

Is home from Montana. Phone, Ind. 324. Address, 220 W. 2d South. Huber account registers and duplicating forms.

Passion Play will run at the Isis theatre from 8 to 7 this evening. To secure chairs for the Twenty-second ward Sunday school.

The Best Printing

Is done by The Century, Salt Lake's printers, 165-167 South West Temple.

McCoy's livery, carriages and light livery. Both phones 81.

FAUST MAKES STATEMENT

Resents Inference Drawn From Attitude Taken by New Management in Regard to Prosecution.

"I have just returned from a trip in the country, and I see by the papers that the new management of the Faust Creamery & Supply company has made certain promises, and the case against them dismissed," said Henry J. Faust, Jr., last evening. "The new management, of course, is entitled to make any promises it may wish to make, but that does not necessarily convict the former management of violating the law. On my own behalf, I wish to state that the old management did not violate the law and that there was no valid case against it. "Sweeping to the complaints at the time they were sworn to served all the purposes that were intended, and no doubt Mr. Frazer would dispose of the case against the Elgin in the same way. The most he could hope for was to prove a technical violation of the law. There were two complaints against each company, charging the same offenses against each. "The first charged misbranding of butter, yet the branding was in accordance with the ruling of the state food and dairy commissioners, who followed the counsel of the attorney general. The branding was the same as used by all other dealers here, especially John Holley, the city councilman, and M. Christensen & Co. Why were these not brought against them?"

"The second complaint charged both companies with having in possession of wholesome butter with intent to sell the same, which was afterward amended by inserting 'tainted and inferior butter.' It is not charged that the butter was impure, but Mr. Frazer admits that it was pure. He intends to prove to the jury either that storage butter is unwholesome or that rapid butter which is sold for cooking purposes is 'tainted' and therefore unwholesome."

"There is about forty million pounds of storage butter sold in the United States yearly, and it sells within a cent of the same grade of fresh butter. Heaven only knows how much rancid butter is sold yearly."

"This is the first case on record where there has been a complaint sworn against any one for selling it. Every butter dealer in the United States could be charged with the same offense. The public can be assured that any butter which is pure is unreasonably wholesome."

There has not been a carload of butter shipped here from Butte nor a carload shipped from San Francisco, for over a year. There has not been any butter sold for soap grease, shipped from here to San Francisco nor any other place, within the last year. When he got to Salt Lake yesterday morning, the man was gone; also the $30 and the watch.

"Glorious Betty," the story of the love of Elizabeth Patterson, belle of Baltimore, and Jerome Bonaparte, brother of the first consul, was told on the stage of the Salt Lake theatre last night. The play was an exceptionally strong company last night. The playwright, Miss Kilda, and the director, Mr. J. M. C. A., were both in the play. She brings Jerome back to the girl of his choice in the last act, and the marriage is consummated. The marriage took place in December, 1803, but Napoleon refused to allow Jerome to bring his bride to France. He died of a fever in the city of Paris. Jerome Patterson doesn't seem to have faded away. That is, not so it could have been noticed. She passed peacefully away at the age of 94 years at the home of her childhood in Baltimore. The present attorney general is a grandson of Jerome Bonaparte and Betsy Patterson. So much by way of explanation.

The play, except for the last act, is remarkably true to history. And Miss Manning acted the part of Betty delightfully. She makes a very real woman out of the belle of more than a hundred years ago, puts her before you with all her witching whimsies. One feels that Jerome Bonaparte would not have been a true man if he had not succumbed to her charms. Miss Manning is a her best in the lighter scenes, surrounded by gallants. But she is also impressive in the third and fourth acts, where the tragedy of her life rules to the exclusion of its happiness.

John Webster as Jerome Bonaparte was very satisfactory. There was little swagger about him. He seemed a truly royal gentleman. Herbert Carr's William Patterson was a finished delineation. It is entitled to more than passing mention, for it left nothing to be desired. The other members of the company were, as has been said, considerably above the average, and the performance, as a whole, ran most smoothly to a well-rounded finish.

The engagement of Miss Manning runs through the rest of the week and includes a matinee on Saturday.

GOVERNOR RECEIVES.

Entertains Officers From Fort Douglas at His Home.

Governor John C. Cutler last evening gave a formal military reception at his home for the officers of the Fifteenth regiment. Colonel Scott is ill at the Holy Cross hospital, unable to attend the reception. He was represented by Lieutenant Colonel Williams. The other officers at the reception were Major Purchase and Armstrong, Captains Palmer, Savage, Harper and Cavanaugh; Lieutenants Seaman, Sampson, Ward, Upham and Baughner and "Chain" Clement. Assisting the governor in receiving were members of his staff, including Generals Sam C. Park and E. A. Wedgwood, Colonel Irvine, Kester, Bower, Seaman and Lund and Lieutenant Colonel Daynes. Among the officers of the National Guard who were present were Colonel Plummer, Acting Adjutant Lieutenant Arms, Captains Bourne, Bassett and Webb and Lieutenants Barnes and Alden.

The rooms of the governor's mansion were hung with flags and decorated with flowers. A huge American flag was hung in front of the residence and the grounds were brilliantly lighted. The National Guard band played several selections during the reception. Miss Edna Evans sang several solos. Brief addresses of felicitation were delivered by the governor, Lieutenant Colonel Williams, General Wedgwood, Colonel Plummer, Colonel Irvine and William Done, the governor's secretary.

Following the reception the governor's staff, with the officers from the fort, attended the ball given at the armory by the Spanish War Veterans.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Glorious Betty," the story of the love of Elizabeth Patterson, belle of Baltimore, and Jerome Bonaparte, brother of the first consul, was told on the stage of the Salt Lake theatre last night. The play was an exceptionally strong company last night. The playwright, Miss Kilda, and the director, Mr. J. M. C. A., were both in the play. She brings Jerome back to the girl of his choice in the last act, and the marriage is consummated. The marriage took place in December, 1803, but Napoleon refused to allow Jerome to bring his bride to France. He died of a fever in the city of Paris. Jerome Patterson doesn't seem to have faded away. That is, not so it could have been noticed. She passed peacefully away at the age of 94 years at the home of her childhood in Baltimore. The present attorney general is a grandson of Jerome Bonaparte and Betsy Patterson. So much by way of explanation.

The play, except for the last act, is remarkably true to history. And Miss Manning acted the part of Betty delightfully. She makes a very real woman out of the belle of more than a hundred years ago, puts her before you with all her witching whimsies. One feels that Jerome Bonaparte would not have been a true man if he had not succumbed to her charms. Miss Manning is a her best in the lighter scenes, surrounded by gallants. But she is also impressive in the third and fourth acts, where the tragedy of her life rules to the exclusion of its happiness.

John Webster as Jerome Bonaparte was very satisfactory. There was little swagger about him. He seemed a truly royal gentleman. Herbert Carr's William Patterson was a finished delineation. It is entitled to more than passing mention, for it left nothing to be desired. The other members of the company were, as has been said, considerably above the average, and the performance, as a whole, ran most smoothly to a well-rounded finish.

The engagement of Miss Manning runs through the rest of the week and includes a matinee on Saturday.

LOCAL OPTION LAW VALID

Hopes of Illinois Liquor Men Are Squelched by Decision of Supreme Court.

Springfield, Ill., April 23.—The supreme court today in a decision declared the new local option law passed last year constitutional. Upon this decree depend the effects of three saloon elections which have been held under the provisions of the present law. The elections resulted in thirty-six counties barring out saloons altogether, while thirty-six other counties turned the liquor dispensaries out of all but one or two towns in the county.

At least 2,500,000 people in Illinois, who have lived in prohibition districts, would perhaps be put back into saloon territory if the supreme court declared the law unconstitutional.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

LOCAL OPTION LAW VALID

Hopes of Illinois Liquor Men Are Squelched by Decision of Supreme Court.

Springfield, Ill., April 23.—The supreme court today in a decision declared the new local option law passed last year constitutional. Upon this decree depend the effects of three saloon elections which have been held under the provisions of the present law. The elections resulted in thirty-six counties barring out saloons altogether, while thirty-six other counties turned the liquor dispensaries out of all but one or two towns in the county.

At least 2,500,000 people in Illinois, who have lived in prohibition districts, would perhaps be put back into saloon territory if the supreme court declared the law unconstitutional.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more than a score of separate divisions in the measure. The most important of these special assaults was the claim of the liquor representatives that the best people outside of a township could not vote the saloons out of a village or city lying wholly within that township.

The decision of the court has been awaited with great anxiety by both sides, because of the wide range of possibilities. Attacks had been directed against more